WRITE SULPHUR SPRINGS,
September 4, 1885.

"The height of the season "at the White Sulphur Springs in former years
was of ten days or two weeks' duration.
It is a time when merriment waves its sceptre o'er all—when every young gul is vieing with her neighbor for the position of "reigning belle," when the beaux are most generous in extending the courtesies of riding and driving, and
the compliments of private germans,
lawn parties, select dinners, and champagna suppers, and when everybody—
old and young, married and single—is determined to enjoy to the extent of his or her capacity the varied delights of this charming resort. It is a matter of general comment that the "high carnival" has been of so much longer duration this year, and for the first time within our recollection it has extended
into the beautiful season of autumn.
For while the company has, of course,

nto the beautiful season of autumn. For while the company has, of course, essened in numbers there are still a great many guests here who continue to indulge in the gayeties.

A few evenings since the handsomest private entertainment given this summer was a dinner by Miss Olivia P. Hill, or Memphis. The menu was a dinner or ange-colored satin of Hill, of Memphis. The menu was printed upon orange-colored satin of superb texture, and consisted of twenty courses. Those present were: Mr. McCown, Memphis; Colonel Johnston, New Orleans; Mrs. Pinson, Memphis; Mr. Sparks, Macon; Miss Hill, Memphis; Colonel Jo. Lane Stern, Richmond; Miss Mildred Lee, Lexington; Mr. John R. Ficklin, New Orleans; Miss Speed, Memphis; Mr. Jamison. Miss Sneed, Memphis; Mr. Jamison, New Orleans; Miss Alcorn, Missis-tippi; Mr. Olmstead, Harrisburg; Miss Jessie Alcorn, Mr. R. D. Doyle, of Norfolk; Miss Cullen, Richmond: Mr. H. Clay Chamblin d; Mr. H. Clay Chamblin, Richmond; Miss Mary M. Jones, Rich-mond; Mr. Overton, Pennsylvania; Miss Caldwell, Mr. Morton, Virginia; rs Thomas, Richmond; Mr. George Bler, Mobile; Miss Susie Stuart, West ia ; Mr. William Tompkins, Richmond; Miss Jackson, New Orleans; Colonel Hamilton, Kentucky; Miss Stanaberry, Fredericksburg; Mr. M. M.

Standerly, redshifts and the standard of her friends remaining here, has left for the Warm Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hoffecker have the standard of the sta returned to their home in Wilmington, Del. They made many friends during their brief stay at the White. Mrs. Pinson and Mrs. McCown, of Memphis, still remain, and are two of ter, of New Orleans; and Mrs. Clarke the most refined, intelligent, and population and three daughters, of Montgomesy. lar ladies of the present season.

The White has rarely known so dmiration of all who meet her. Miss Sneed, of Memphis, and Miss

Bacon, of Macon, are two of the fortu-nate young ladies who do not yet seem to realize that beaux are getting scarce. The rich and beautiful voice of Miss Cochran, of Louisville, is heard no more at the White, much to the regret of her numerous admiring friends.

Miss Billingsley, of St. Louis, a lovely and attractive girl, won a host of friends during her brief stay here, and is now, with her friend Miss Garth, of Missouri, registered in Richmond.

Tennessee has perhaps furnished the largest number of popular young la-dies (outside of Virginia) at the White this summer. Amongst the most con-spicuous were Miss Saidee Fall, a niece of Mrs. ex-Governor Polk, and her friend Miss Alice Hensley. They were complimented on the day of their departure by an elegant breakfast from brier county this summer. The latter we will welcome heartily to Richmond if she decides to accept a home with us.

Kentucky sent a lively representative
of her fair young women in the person
of Miss Mary B. Harris, whose exquisite face, dignity of manner, and bright intelligence charmed all who met her. Most of our Richmond belles have left here for other resorts or for their home on the James. On the occasion of one of the germans given by "the ladies" Mr. Wil-liam Acklen, of Nashville, had the largest number of "escorts" at his disposal of any gentleman at the White. Mr. Rutherfoord Rose, of our city, was the next most favored, having received eight invitations for the evening.

Major Eakle has proven that he is the man for the place, for in point of comfort and elegance of company the season of '85 is far ahead of all former

A Bright Favor German-The Ludies Pres ent, and What Ther Wore-A Charming

Healing Springs, Sept. 3, 1885.

Nowhere in this Valley, renowned for its picturesque scenery and the freshness and purity of the air, is there such a combination of the beautiful in nature and art as is found here. The lawn, with its green sward and grand old oaks, which grow in their native luxuriance, offers a fine battle-field for Gupid. From the portico of the main hotel a mountain stream is seen winding its silvery way through the lawn, which alopes gently to its banks, and crossed by several rustic bridges.

The fifth grand favor german of the crossed by several rustic bridges.

The fifth grand favor german of the season was given last night by the guests in honor of the birthday of two of them, one of Richmond's fairest daughters and one of Baltimore's noblest sons. The favors were exceedingly handsome, and displayed the ingenuity and workmanship of fairy hands. A delightful supper was given by Mrs. H. Carter Eubank, the proprietress, which would have put Delmonice to the blush. The ball-room was artistically decorated with ferns and flowers.

The german was led by Mr. Beverly

GAYETIES AT GREENWOOD.

An Enloyable Phantom Ball-Who Have Been Sejourning at this Pleasant Place.

[Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]
GREENWOOD, September 5, 1885.
The country around has on its loveliest hue, and all nature seems to send liest hue, and all nature seems to send a separate welcome to each new party. We have had quite a select crowd this summer, and from all accounts it has been gayer than ever before. Two large parties have been given by its genial hostess, Mrs. Munday.

On Saturday night we had a phantom ball. At the appointed time the music struck up a rather doleful march and the couples filed in. Their unique costumes presented rather a sombre picture. After dancing some time they unmasked, and while enjoying themselves hugely the pleasant sound of the gong announced supper. A splendid repast awaited us below, and you may be sure we did full justice to the products of Albemarle. ducts of Albemarie.

Among the guests from the 23d to the 30th of August we note the follow-

A GOOD THING. Dr. Adam Miller, Chicago, Ill., says : "I have recommended Horsford's Acid Phosphate to my patients, and have re-ceived very favorable reports. departure by an elegant breakfast from the "Irish Club," of which Colonel Hamilton is president. Many other entertainments were tendered them whilst at the White. They are both very pretty, and were greatly admired for their sweet manners and exquisite dressing.

Georgia should be justly proud of her two beauties—Miss Green, of Attack. her two beauties—Miss Green, of Atlanta, and Miss Bacon, of Macon—who made their first appearance in Greenstomach, strengthened the digestive organs and soon all that burning ceased, and I could retain food without difficulty. Now my health is good, and can eat anything in the shape of food and digest it without the slightest difficulty. I most cheerfully bear this testimony, because there are hundreds suffering as I was, and I am sure they can be as ret #ily healed. Take the prescribed dose afte, cating, instead of before.

FREE FROM MALARIA.

In the fall of 1884 I was taken with a case of malarial-fever, which prostrated me both body and mind. I was drugged after the old fashion with mercury and other mineral mixtures, but with no good results. My health was shattered and my energy gone. My legs and feet would swell, and I nad what everybody thought was dropsy. These symptoms aiarned me, and I was ready to grasp at any remedy suggested. A friend advised me to try Swift's Specific. I produced three bottles and commenced its use. The swelling soon aubsided. I have taken the three bottles, which have made a perfect cure, and I feel like a new man to-day. There never was a more meritorious medicine offered to suffering humanity. It has wrought wonders for me. WILLES JONES.

is useful to doctor and patient. When diffused in the apartment it disinfects the attendants as well as the sick. In nearly every instance in which it has been used in this city it has prevented the spread of contagious disease, especially diphtheria and scarlet-fever, beyond the sick room.

It is the most agreeable, innocent, and effective destroyer of bad odors and disease germs yet offered to the public. It has cured whooping-cough in a remarkably short time.

TRUSTEEE'S SALE OF VALUABLE
PROPERTY AT BURKEVILLE, NOTTOWAY, COUNTY, VA.

By virtue of a deed of trust executed by Samuel Burke, Jr., and wife and als., duly recorded in the cierk's office of the County Court of Nottoway county, Va., I will offer
for sale by public auction, on the premises,
on THURSDAY SEPTEMBER 24, 1885. on THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 24, 1885, at 12 o'clock M., that valuable property at Burkeville known as BURKE'S HOTEL. The place contains about 380 ACRES OF LAND, commencing at the depot of the Richmond and Danville railroad, and lies burgely inside the corporate limits of the thriving and healthy village of Burkeville. This place is 525 feet above tide-water, and could be made a most desirable summer resort for citizens of both Richmond and Petersburg, being only fifty-three miles from each of said cities. It contains large and well-located buildings, and is one of the most desirable investments, as it must in the next few years greatly increase in value.

FOR RENT, THAT DESIRABLE RANGED DWELLING No. 511 north Seventh street, containing eight rooms; range, hot and cold water, &c. Apply to JOHN T. GODDIN, the next few years greatly increase in value.

The above sale to be on a credit of not more than one, two, and three years, trustee taking from purchaser bond, with approved security, and retaining the title until all of the purchase-money is paid.
